

3P/c

"The Singing Island"
MacColl & Seeger
no source given.

8. MOLLY DANCERS

Moderate
D

1 A7 2 A7 D

Mol-ly Dan-cers kicking up a row, kicking up a row, kicking up a row, Mol-ly Dan-cers kicking up a row, My fair la-dy.

G A7

Cheese and bread the old cow's dead, Roast it in a lan - tern,

D A7 D G D A7 D

A bit for you and a bit for me, and a bit for the Mol-ly Dan - cers.

bee,

wi?

lad,

F

9. HIS OLD GREY BEARD

With a swing
VERSE A

E7 A (B7) E7

There was an old man came o-ver the hill, He hi, I won't have him;

VERSE A REFRAIN A E7 A

There was an old man who came o-ver the hill, And his old grey beard kept wagging.

CHORUS A E7 A (B7) E7

He hi, I won't have him. He hi, I won't have him.

A D A E7 A

There was an old man who came o-ver the hill, And his old grey beard kept wagging.

2. My mother she told me to give him some kale,
He hi, I won't have him,
I gave him some kale and he puffed like a whale,
And his old grey beard kept wagging.
3. My mother she told me to give him some bread,
He hi, I won't have him,
I gave him some bread and he stood on his head,
And his old grey beard kept wagging.
4. My mother she told me to give him some cabbage,
He hi, I won't have him,
I gave him some cabbage and he ate like a savage,
And his old grey beard kept wagging.
5. My mother she told me to give him a kiss,
He hi, I won't have him,
"If you like him so well, you can kiss him yourself,"
And his old grey beard kept wagging.